THE

WISCONSIN

JOURNAL OF EDUCATION:

THE ORGAN OF THE

State Teachers' Association,

AND OF THE

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

RESIDENT EDITOR: A. J. CRAIG, PALMYRA.

ASSOCIATE EDITORS:

J. L. PICKARD, PLATTEVILLE.
JNO, G. M'MYNN, RACINE.
A. C. BARRY, SYLVANIA.
J. EMERSON, BELOIT.
D. J. HOLMES, SHEBOYGAN.
O. M. CONOVER, MADISON.
T. R. WILLIAMS, ALBION.
A. PICKETT, HORICON.

VOLUME II.

MADISON, WIS.:
ATWOOD & RUBLEE, BOOK AND JOB PRINTERS,
1858.

F902
.7W8

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

A

	Page.
A few words to the teachers of our summer Schools,	14
A course of composition,	176
Away! away to school!	247
A devout convert,	270
A noble compliment to a gifted American,	285
A word about lying,	289
A sea wave,	309
Amendments to school laws,	369
Answer to H. S. P.'s article on our school system,	303

B

Bad spelling and its consequences,	228
Boston schools,	175

C

Collegiana—No. 1,	337
Country school-houses,	257, 307
Circular to the teachers of Racine public schools,	235
Childish wisdom,	516

D

Dane county teachers' association,	79
Disadvantages of ignorance,	201
Division in school districts,	330
Description of Waukesha public school-house,	240
Does the Mississippi run up hill?	105
Doctors degrees,	274
Don't spell it, but write it,	286
EDITORIAL MISCELLANY, 20, 50, 82, 115, 156, 188, 216, 249, 287, 316, 349, 372

E

Earnestness,	363
Economy of three-cent men,	360
Educational aids	41
Excerpts,	302
Educate the people,	242
Education its motives, methods, and ends,	194
Education of children,	213
Education of the agriculturist,	144
Experience,	77

F

Feeling his responsibility,	12
Fashion,	283

G

Grammar in rhyme,	78
Gymnasia at schools and colleges,	108
Good hits well given,	205
Good books,	209
Grammar,	209
Good Example,	295
Great men,	345

H

How to govern a school,	239
Hard times,	246
Hobbies,	361
How will you help yourself?	364

I

Imperishability of good examples,	167
I take care of my lambs,	237
Impatience the vice of the age,	280

L

Learning a trade,	146
Letters to little folks,	187, 214, 246, 285
Letter from a town superintendent,	296

M

Means of cultivating a correct literary taste,	101
Method of teaching arithmetic,	141
Military punishments,	245
My first teacher,	275
Methods of teaching,	298
Mode of teaching,	324, 355
More beyond,	370

N

National teachers' association,	150
Notes of a lesson in natural history,	211
Normal schools,	264
Nursery rhymes—prophetic,	342

O

On choosing subjects for composition,	200
Our school system,	265, 288

P

Pen talk or composition,	45
Public high school,	65
Philosophy in court,	78
People's convention,	109
Proceedings of Second Institute, held at Dartford,	151
Pushing on, a plea for little children,	168
Prayer for public schools,	178
Peace-making John,	212
Penmanship,	275
Platteville academy,	299
Physical exercise at school,	300, 326
Practical teachings,	321

Q

Questioning each other,	42
Qualifications of teachers,	148

R

Rules for teachers,	12
Requiring pupils to report their own conduct,	73
Remedies for irregularities of attendance at school,	232
Revision of the school laws,	271
Racine high school,	328

S

Page.

School visitations, 10
Schools in Sweden—gymnastics, 11
School-house robbery, 47
Sunlight and shadows in the school-room, 48
Spelling, 103
Suggestions to district boards, 118
School discipline, 139
Sheboygan county teachers' association, 172
Schemes of mental training, 179
School fund, 225
School-room apparatus, 269
Small talk, 329
Sports of childhood, 341

STATE SUPERINTENDENT'S DEPARTMENT.

Distribution of dictionaries, 18
Circular to town superintendents, 256
Opinions and decisions by the Superintendent, 310, 331, 365. Circular to town superintendents, 313. Distribution of Dictionaries, 314, 369. About appeals and "Educational Journal," 335.

T

The college code of honor, 1
The distance of the sun from the earth increasing, 6
The study of reading lessons, 7
The fiftieth birth-day of Agassiz the naturalist, 13
Teachers' salaries, 15
To the teachers of the United States, 33
Thoughts on absenteeism, and the powers which teachers possess to enable them to prevent it, 36
Teachers' institutes. 39
The influence of teaching upon health, 70
The penitent scholar, 76
Teachers' associations, 111
Teachers' attend! 114

Page.

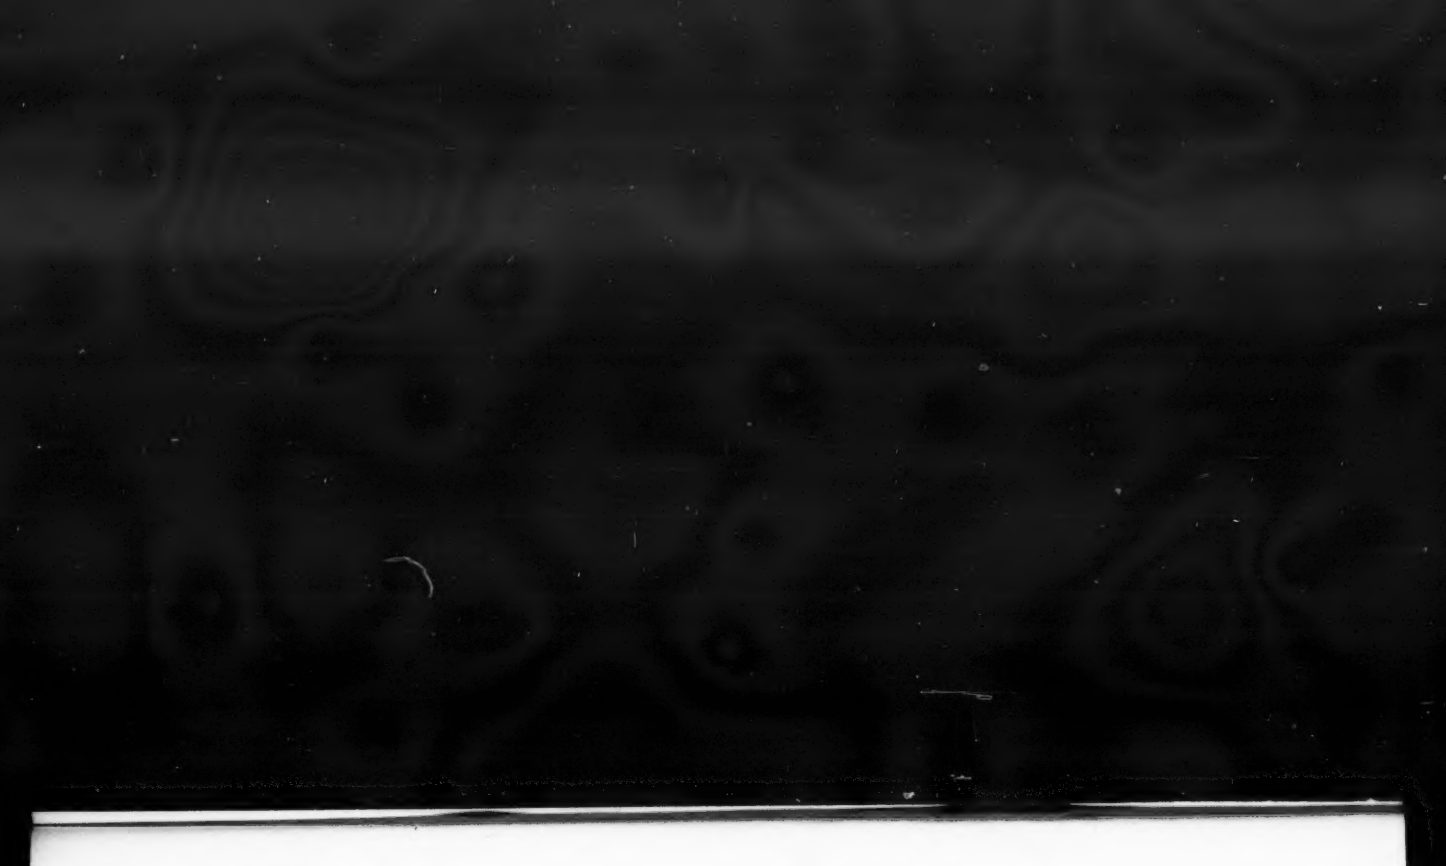
The claims of teaching to the rank of a profession, 129
Teachers' salaries, 143
The educator versus the teacher, 177
Teaching, 181
To the editors of the Journal of Education, 185
The qualifications of a teacher, 186
To the little folks, 187
The sin of bad spelling 243
The parents, 243
Teachers' characteristics, 265
Truth, 280
True loveliness, 282
Three kinds of praise, 302
The lilies, 327
The first great grief, 340
The happy school boy, 347
Things I remember, 346
The best method of teaching reading, 357
The tendency of industry, 359

U

Utility of classical studies, 44

V

Value of a good school-house, 145, 161, 192, 23
Visitation of schools, 75

W


Why are you a teacher, 34
Westward movement of the center of population, and of industrial power in North America, 97
Wisconsin institute for the education of the blind, 107
Watch the main spring, 149, 182, 262, 305, 353
What is true education, 204
Walworth county teachers' association, 260
Well taught children, 264
Wisconsin students, 304